

Share your office with others. Sustainable for your finances and our planet.

Fiveoffices is THE new office rental experience!

Office sharing is not only the best solution from an economic point of view or in terms of flexibility, it is also an opportunity for new meetings, creation of synergies, exchanges or associations of skills.

Ben - Fiveoffices Guest

With Fiveoffices, finding an office is:

- Simple: find an office that suits your needs in a few clicks.
- Free: from signing up to moving into your new office, this service won't cost you anything.
- Practical: access a large choice of reasonably priced offices available for short periods (2 to 24 months). This is a unique solution for optimising your costs.

Laure - Fiveoffices Host

With Fiveoffices, managing unused office space is:

- Beneficial: monetise the office space that you aren't using!
- Simple: in just a few minutes, list your unused office space
- Free: publishing your offices is free and without commitment. Fiveoffices will only bill you a 10% service fee calculated on your total contract value (without tax) that is established following an introduction via our site.

Improve your CSR approach

By sharing office space, you are making a demonstrable contribution to the overall effort to better manage and use resources.

By optimizing the occupancy of already built and maintained offices, our carbon footprints can be significantly reduced.

Welcome to a shared and sustainable future!

Our team

At Fiveoffices, we are committed to the sharing economy as one of the key solutions for the success of companies today and into tomorrow.
