CONTEMPORARY
JEWELRY ARTISTS

EST BARCELONA 1981

Joidart Barcelona is a family business that creates creative jewelry in collaboration with artists and jewelers. We craft them very close to the Mediterranean coast and send them all over the world, imbued with the essence of their creators and the sea that inspires them.

HERITAGE

It all began in 1981, when the entrepreneurial spirit of Jaume Julià drove him to convert a small gold and silversmith's workshop in a small rural village near the Costa Brava into a contemporary jewelry company. The artistic heritage of these lands bathed by the Mediterranean and the mark left there by universal creators such as Joan Miró and Antoni Gaudí meant that the brand had a clear link with art and with the city of Barcelona from the very beginning.

Taking up the creative spirit and warm nature of her father, Cristina Julià, the brand's creative director, and Mariona Julià, sales director, drive the company ever forward with a strong commitment to design and new technologies.

OUR INSPIRATION

Inspired by our sea and land of internationally renowned artists, together with emerging artists and jewelers in the area, we capture the art of our Mediterranean culture and nature and transform them into minimalist, timeless design creations.

JOIDART & MUSEUMS

Museums such as the Thyssen in Madrid, the Tate and the Royal Academy of Arts in London, Casa Batlló in Barcelona and the Beyeler Foundation in Basel, among many others, place their trust in us. Our presence in museums allows us to position the brand and Joidart jewelry at an elite level in terms of design, creativity and quality. They are spaces with a very important aspirational value that facilitate the sale of our jewelry in other spaces outside of museum stores.

TEAM

Our team and its commitment to this project are our strength. The craftspeople in our own jewelry workshop, located in a unique natural environment, guarantee the quality of our jewelry. The artists who design allow us to renew the catalog of jewelry with a sense of character and a design that stands out, always at affordable prices. The seriousness of the sales team is the key to our commitment to customer service and attention.
