BEKKING & BLITZ

Ingrid Smuling, opgeleid aan de Koninklijke Academie in Den Haag in de jaren zestig, is de 'grande dame' van gedetailleerde bloemen- en serviesschilderijen in klassieke stijl. De monochrome muren en tafels van Smuling vormen de perfecte achtergrond voor haar levendig gekleurde, zorgvuldig uitgekozen boeketten, geplaatst in porseleinen kopjes of delicate zilveren vazen. Met haar elegante stilleven portretteert Ingrid Smuling (Den Haag, 1944) een serene wereld, waarin klassieke elegantie de boventoon voert. Een lust voor het oog op elke notitiekaart of kalender.

Schooled at the Royal Academy in The Hague during the 1960s, Ingrid Smuling is the 'grande dame' of detailed flower and tableware painting in a classical style. Smuling's monochromatic walls and tables provide the perfect backdrop for her vibrantly coloured, hand-picked bouquets placed in porcelain cups or delicate silver vases. With her elegant still lives, Ingrid Smuling (The Hague, 1944) portrays a serene world, in which classical elegance prevails. A feast for the eye on any note card or calendar.

Net als bij de Meesters van het 17^e-eeuwse bloemstilleven vormt voor Bas Meeuws de werkelijkheid de basis, maar daarna buigt hij deze naar zijn hand.

Bas haalt zijn inspiratie uit schilderijen van katoenen draagtassen, zoals onder andere Balthasar van der Ast en de Bosschaert familie. Dit geeft een uniek eindresultaat waarbij 17^e-eeuwse schilderijen met de nieuwste technieken gecombineerd zijn.

As with the Masters of the 17th-century flower still life, reality forms the basis for Bas Meeuws, but then he bends it to his will.

Bas gets his inspiration from paintings by painters such as Balthasar van der Ast and the Bosschaert family. This gives a unique end result in which 17th-century paintings are combined with the latest techniques.
