Privacy Policy

● Personal data held by PWN Global

Personal data to which PWN Global ("PWN") has access will be included in a file owned by PWN for the following purposes:

- (i) managing the maintenance of the relationship established with PWN,
- (ii) performing the management, administration, provision, expansion and improvement of the content, information and services offered by PWN and
- (iii) the delivery of newsletters, invites to our events or partner's events, and communications related to programs and other services or offers/benefits for our members.

You can exercise your rights of opposition, access, correction, and cancellation of your personal data under the terms provided by Law. These rights may be exercised in writing by letter enclosing a copy of your Identity Document and addressed to PWN at the address indicated at the beginning of this document or by email to the following address: contact@pwnglobal.net.

In case you become, or you are a Member of PWN, you authorize PWN to use your image freely, on a worldwide basis, in relation to the events in which PWN participates. You can revoke this consent at any time by emailing contact@pwnglobal.net.

By virtue of this Policy, you are hereby informed, and you accept that PWN, with the aforementioned purposes and for storage and security purposes, will transfer your personal data to third parties located in other EU countries.

In compliance with current regulations regarding the protection of personal data, PWN undertakes to comply with the secrecy and confidentiality obligation in this regard and has adopted, for this purpose, the security levels provided in the applicable privacy regulations, installing the necessary technical means and undertaking all measures at its disposal to prevent the alteration, loss, processing, theft or unauthorized access to the same.

● Personal data held by local PWN Norway

Additionally, we inform you that your personal data will be included in files owned by PWN Norway, your local PWN City Network (that you selected when registering as part of our newsletter, membership or events lists) for the purposes mentioned in paragraph one of this Policy. The information about PWN Norway is available on its website.

You are informed that you can exercise your rights of opposition, access, correction, and cancellation by sending a letter or email enclosing a copy of your Identity Document and addressing it to membership@pwnnorway.no.

If you become or are a Member of PWN Norway, you authorize PWN Norway to use your image freely, on a worldwide basis, in relation to the events in which PWN Norway participates. You can revoke this consent at any time by emailing membership@pwnnorway.no.

By virtue of this Policy, you are hereby informed, and you accept that PWN Norway, with the aforementioned purposes and for storage and security purposes, will transfer your personal data to PWN and other third parties located in other EU countries.

In compliance with current regulations regarding the protection of personal data, PWN undertakes to comply with the secrecy and confidentiality obligation in this regard and has adopted, for this purpose, the security levels provided in the applicable privacy regulations, installing the necessary technical means and measures at its disposal to prevent the alteration, loss, processing, theft or unauthorized access to the same.
