The women of Africa are its heart, backbone & potential. They are the rock around which homes are built on, the cornerstones of our communities. Soul Puzzles chooses to honour the beauty of these phenomenal women who literally carry the burden of creation, evolution & transformation. As a South African company, we take pride in the beauty, diversity and ubuntu of our nation, our country & our continent.

St. Augustine taught the universal truth that we may travel everywhere in search of beauty but only truly find it when we return home. Did you know that Africa, with the oldest mountains, the greatest range of wildlife, flora and fauna, is also home to the most amazing landmarks? This whimsy may look like the Colosseum in Rome ... but it isn't! Even as we marvel at the amazing spaces across the globe, we must turn our hearts homeward ... here there are mysteries and magic to experience at every turn in the road. An information sheet about the landmarks is included.

Home is a sacred space! Home is where the heart IS! Home is where my Soul is at Peace.

We need to sell at least 1 MILLION Prayer for Africa and Africa Shaped puzzles to manifest our vision of a canine sanctuary, a place of peace and rest for homeless old dogs who are unlikely to ever be adopted. This same sanctuary will be able to provide foster care and healing for all canine rescues. 90% of the profit of Soul Puzzles is dedicated to the creation & maintenance of the God Dog Sanctuary.

As South Africans we take pride in the beauty, diversity and ubuntu of our nation, our country & our continent. The ancient Soul of Africa inspires us to create puzzles that challenge the old beliefs and attitudes about Africa, to nurture a young democracy, to dance the song of our souls. We celebrate the SOUL OF AFRICA, the resilient spirit that lives at the heart of every sentient being.

Beautifully packaged in tins, these heirloom quality puzzles make thoughtful gifts for any occasion, travel well and will be cherished for years to come.

Earth Star Chakra

302 pieces

SKU: W210K302

The Earth Star chakra honours our connectedness to the earth, to the support we receive in every moment. The themed whimsies encourage being mindful of the earth and all other elements, choosing to respond to the generosity of earth and to fully experience the influence of the Heavens on our somewhat insignificant orb in the infinite & eternal mystery of the Universe. Get present with this puzzle, get grounded & reconnect with your highest Self & begin the journey of gathering self unto Self!

Root Chakra

300 pieces

SKU: W211K300

The 4 petaled Root or Base chakra is a hard working centre from which we incarnate, survive, develop an identity & strive to Be more. Its direct connection to the crown chakra inspires our restlessness, urges us to evolve and inspires us to know God. Relevant whimsies and patterns within the puzzle act to ground us, to connect us and re-Mind us! The revitalizing shades of red act directly on our capacity to receive prana and replenish the physical body.

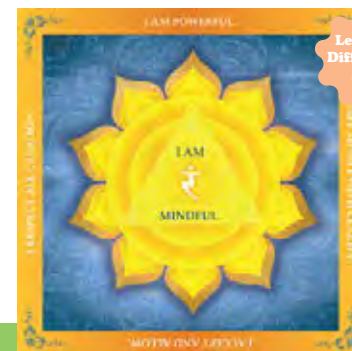

Sacral Chakra

350 pieces

SKU: W212K350

The 6 petaled chakra of creativity, free will and sacred contracts is the centre from which we CHOOSE! Directly connected to the 3rd eye chakra, an unbalanced Sacral chakra leaves us feeling stuck, and unable to change our minds or actions to fulfil our dreams. From this chakra we manifest our intentions & mindfully move ourselves into higher vibrations of being light ... the vibrant shades of orange & blue help balance our illusions of life & encourage the conscious use of Free Will in service to Divine Will.

Solar Plexus Chakra

288 pieces

SKU: W213K288

The 10 petaled Solar Plexus chakra calls for management of mind, awareness of self and the development of a healthy ego that manages the trio of human chakras. Often bloated and bogged down by excessive thinking it manifests its imbalances in the digestive system and body shape. Directly connected to the throat chakra, it demands that we learn & live the true self with respect and nobility. From here we demonstrate our character & personality, our intellect & ignorance ...

Heart Chakra

313 pieces

SKU: W214K313

The 12 petaled Heart chakra is beautifully represented in its primary colours of pink & green. Filled with relevant whimsies and edged with engraved hearts, this is a puzzle for those choosing to receive & share love, to rescind fear, to feel connected to self and others. We must all remember that we breathe to LOVE. That the answer to every dilemma is LOVE.

Throat Chakra

SKU: W215K306

The chakra of integrity & honesty. It supports the POWER OF THE WORD when it is balanced by a Solar Plexus chakra. It speaks compassion when connected to an open heart chakra. The 16 petals of the Throat chakra are instruments of channeling love and God into the world. They challenge the human games of denial, avoidance and miscommunication. The aquamarine colour encourages knowing and feeling our inner truth. Here we learn that confrontation is not conflict, that voices must be used for the voiceless, that evil thrives where good men remain silent.

Collage designs also available as bespoke puzzles with personal images & engraved details.

I have found nothing more inspiring, loving & more forgiving than a dog. Paddy, an instructive and somewhat bossy Master Mentor energy came into my life & transformed the very core of me into the "more" I didn't even know existed within. Pandora, gentle, sweet and immovable permeated every cell of my being with Presence. They made love an active and tangible dynamic of daily life.

Dog lovers agree... living with a dog is a life-changing blessing. We give thanks daily for the gift of loyalty, the inexpressible care and understanding & the joy, oh! The joy of living with a dog.

Medieval Illuminations Series

The sacred art of illumination is the blending of imagery and text; ideas and concepts expressed through words, colours, patterns & symbolism. At its core, it is a creative act of love & devotion, a way of communing with the Divine. Each illumination is a meditation, a quiet space of Being, a gathering of self toward Self. As such, every puzzle in this series presents an opportunity to reconnect within, to explore the past from a different perspective & to heal.

Beautifully imagined and crafted by Tania Crossingham, the original illuminations are hand painted on parchment or calf skin and embellished with gold leaf. Visit www.tania-crossingham.com for additional information about the artist.

The Medieval Illumination Series presents a variety of images, cuts & difficulty levels in keeping with the ever-fluctuating needs of any pathway of awareness. Ranging from beginners level with extra-large random cut pieces to difficult more complicated cuts and whimsical pieces, they cater for all ages and stages of life, young and old hands and eyes.

Beautifully packaged in tins, these puzzles make thoughtful gifts for any occasion, travel well and will be cherished for years to come.
