Atty. Josephine G. Gomez, is a Certified Public Accountant, a Lawyer, a Book Author and a Licensed Real Estate Broker and Appraiser. She took up Bachelor of Science in Accountancy in Bicol University in year 1998. Afterwards, she pursued Bachelor of Laws in Aquinas University, now UST Legazpi where she graduated with Academic Distinction. With great passion for studying law, she further pursued her Master's Degree and took up Master of Laws (LLM) at University of Santo Tomas Manila where she presented her thesis entitled: No Take Off Policy: A legal reformative framework for Deterrence and Collection of Taxes in the Philippines. The paper eventually gave her the highest recognition given to a Master of Law student. She graduated SUMMA CUM LAUDE of Class 2018. Unstoppable and unbothered by any kind of challenges she continued with her graduate studies and finished her Doctor of Civil law (DCL) in the same university where her paper entitled: Marriage Between Tax and Technology: The Dawn of a New Era of Tax Administration through Artificial Intelligence, gave her the same highest latin honor of SUMMA CUM LAUDE of Class 2023.

Atty. Gomez, entered the Bureau of Internal Revenue in August 1999. She rose from the ranks, started as a Revenue Examiner, then promoted to a Group Supervisor, Chief of the Assessment Section and now an Assistant Revenue District Officer. She was assigned to several Revenue District Offices such as Legazpi City, Sorsogon, Naga City, Makati City, San Pablo Laguna and now currently assigned in Muntinlupa City. Her dedication and passion to serve as a public servant is exemplified by her continued pursuit of sharing her knowledge not only to her colleagues but most importantly to the taxpaying public. She is a consistent resource speaker of the Bureau of Internal Revenue, sharing her expertise on tax audit, profiling of taxpayer, tax account management program, and all other tax updates and recently issued BIR issuances.

Her expertise in taxation is duly recognized when she was chosen several times to join the delegation to represent the Philippines on tax matters. First, is the actual evaluation of the server of one of the multinational companies with Head Office located in London England. Second is when she was given the chance to attend the GLOBAL VAT FORUM in Melbourne Australia.

With a desire to improve her knowledge Atty. Gomez was a recipient of several scholarship grants which practically allowed her to travel to different countries and gave her the chance know more about the different tax systems and best practices in tax administration. She was a Philippine delegate to Malaysian Tax Academy, where she studied General Tax Administration Course in 2016. Afterwards she attended a Conference on Modernizing Justice in London England. To learn more about the tax system of the United States, she was lucky to be admitted at Institute of US LAW in Washington D.C., where she was given the chance to meet the prominent and most renowned lawyers in the United States specializing in Commercial Law, Taxation and Constitutional Law. Recently she was given the chance to join the Harvard Project for Asian and International Relations (HPAIR) at Harvard University, when she submitted her paper on Artificial Intelligence, a tool to improve Tax Compliance in the Philippines.
