

Data Governance.
Data Discovery.

██████████ In today's dynamic corporate ██████████ environment, enterprise data has many different uses and forms. All of these are important. All pose risks and opportunities for your organisation.

Data. Intellectual Property. Facts. Records. Evidence.

Data risks and opportunities for your organisation can include:

BUSINESS LEADERS

Managing business challenges while enabling revenue growth.

- How can we minimise risk without disrupting the business?
- What insights can we gain from our data to create business value?

INFORMATION SECURITY TEAMS

Protecting data from internal and external threats.

- How can we enable appropriate access to data for our employees and partners, yet protect against threats?
- What are the best ways to anticipate and respond to a data breach?

IT TEAMS

Maximising investments for better productivity.

- How can we safely migrate data to the cloud?
- How can we remediate old or redundant data to ease storage costs and reduce risk?

LEGAL TEAMS

Discovering data for legal and regulatory matters.

- How can we reduce the cost and complexity of e-discovery?
- How can we find essential data quickly, in order to meet regulatory deadlines or better develop case strategy?

RISK AND COMPLIANCE TEAMS

Assessing risks and ensuring compliance.

- How can we stay in compliance with rapidly evolving regulations?
- What can our data tell us about risks to the business?

Expert Software, Services and Consulting

Combine our expert consultants, proven workflows and innovative technology to solve your data-related business challenges. We right-size the approach for you, with an emphasis on results.

CONTROL

Information Governance, Privacy & Security
