Article 2 – AIMS

Six of the largest European companies are joining together to create the Software République, a new open ecosystem for smart and sustainable mobility. The Software République acknowledges the urgency for France and Europe to collectively build a sustainable ecosystem, which aims to ensure their sovereignty in this area.

For the first time, the Software République is making some of its data available. Any dataset would be accessible through a NDA and in compliance with the GDPR to allow you to create disruptive use cases that will be a source of business and / or that will have a positive impact on the evolution of society, whether for citizens, businesses, cities or territories.

Smooth EV Experience:

The objective is to facilitate the EV experience and more generally, the on-board experience or access to energy by making innovative proposals (for example on the optimal positioning of charging stations). The Software République wants to imagine the services linked to an end-to-end user experience, from vehicle purchase to after-sales service. Vehicular communication systems (V2X) are also included in the scope.

Intelligent transportation:

The objective is to unjam urban traffic by making innovative proposals on the intelligent transport of goods and people, for example the last mile delivery.

Multimodal accessibility:

The objective is to simplify the mobility experience by optimizing traffic management (especially in case of an exceptional event) and infrastructure management (roads, rails, car parks, digital infrastructures, etc.), by improving multimodal travel (public and private) or by offering extensions of the vehicle ecosystem to FinTech and InsurTech.

Cybersecurity:

Connected vehicle means also vulnerability to a cyberattack. Cybersecurity is becoming a “must-have”. The subject is to offer solutions for the detection and protection against cyber-attacks. Proposals in terms of data optimization (edge computing) or hardware / software solutions for on-board and off-board data management are also in the scope of this challenge.

Open Ideas: Any another disruptive business idea to develop in terms of end-to-end architecture data optimization or hardware / software solutions for on-board and off-board data management.

The mobility 4.0 challenge rules by the terms and conditions exposed hereafter (the “Challenge”) grants three (3) winners, and prizes will be detailed on the Organisers’ Website.
