Innovation Day Upper Rhine

Researchers, companies and start-ups in the trinational region:
connect and match!

Register now for the first-ever joint Innovation Day between Germany, Switzerland and France. Whether you are working in a company, a start-up or in research, there is more than one reason to participate in the Innovation Day Upper Rhine:

- 3 plenary sessions with influential speakers
- More than 15 exciting workshops
- Meetings with more than 500 qualified international contacts

This unique event will address various themes such as DeepTech, in cooperation with the French public investment bank Bpifrance, sustainable development, MedTech, financing opportunities, and successful collaborations between research institutions and companies. It will take place on April 12, 2022, at the Palais Universitaire in Strasbourg, and will end with a convivial networking evening.
