The Organizing Company reserves the right to shorten, extend, postpone, change or cancel the Game, should circumstances require any such action. The Organizing Company will inform Customers by any means. Under no circumstances will the Organizing Company be liable for taking any such action.

The Organizing Company declines all liability for any incident that might arise while the prize is being used.

Each Participant, as a representative of a Customer, must expressly verify, prior to his or her participation in the Game, that the Game and his or her participation therein is in line with the Customer's ethical and compliance policies.

Article 7. Intellectual property rights

The brands, logos and corporate name on the Site are the exclusive property of the Organizing Company, and are protected under intellectual property rights. No right for use or reproduction in any form whatsoever may be granted without the prior written consent of the Organizing Company. Similarly, any reproduction or representation of all or part of the Game's components, on any medium whatsoever, is expressly forbidden without the prior written consent of the Organizing Company.

Article 8. Reimbursement

The Organizing Company undertakes to reimburse any Customer who requests reimbursement of costs incurred for connecting to the Site and for participating in the Game.

The amount reimbursed is set at €0.22 centimes per request. This amount corresponds to an estimate of the connection cost for the time necessary to participate in the Game.

Requests for reimbursement for participation in the Game are limited to one per Customer (same name, same postal address) throughout the Game Duration.

Request for reimbursement must:

- be in writing and sent at standard “economy” postal rates(20g) addressed to Cegid ;
- state the last name, first name and postal address of the participant;
- state the date, time and length of connection to the Site;
- include a copy of the detailed invoice from the telecom operator and/or internet service provider (except in cases where the service provider refuses to send a detailed invoice), with the date and time of the connection to the Site clearly underlined;
- include IBAN/BIC information;
- arrive at the Organizing Company no later than ten (10) days after receipt of the detailed invoice from the telecom operator and/or service provider (as proven by date of invoice and postmark).

The cost of stamps for such a request will be reimbursed by the Organizing Company, at current standard “economy” rates (20g), upon request to be included with the request for reimbursement of connection costs.

Costs for photocopies of proof will be reimbursed on the basis of €0.15 per page, upon request to be included with the request for reimbursement of connection costs.

The reimbursement will be performed by wire transfer within 60 days of receipt of the completed request, and after verification of the validity of the request.

Reimbursement requests received by email will not be considered, nor will requests that are illegible, incomplete, with insufficient postage or posted after the deadline.

In the current internet access market, certain internet service providers offer a free or fixed-rate connection. It is expressly agreed that any access to the Site by means of a free or fixed-rate connection (e.g., fiber optics, cable, ADSL or special connection) is ineligible for reimbursement, given that a subscription with the service provider is for general use of the internet, and therefore the participant’s connection to the Site to participate in the Game involves no additional cost or expenditure.

Participation in the Game involves full and unconditional acceptance of the Rules.

The Rules can be consulted at any time on Cegid’s Facebook page (hyperlink on the Cegid Facebook homepage) and on each reply form, throughout the Game Duration.

The Rules may also be obtained free of charge upon request throughout the Game Duration by writing to the following address: Cegid - Jeu “Pack Cegid Connections à Madrid” - Service Communication, 52 quai Paul Sédallian, 69009 Lyon.

Requests that are illegible, incomplete, with insufficient postage or sent after the deadline will not be considered.

The Rules may be amended by the Organizing Company, by publication of a notice on the Site.

No written, oral or telephoned requests with regard to the Game or interpretation or application of the Rules will be acknowledged.

Article 10. Applicable law – Disputes

The Rules are subject to French law.
