Gran Canaria as a MICE destination

Gran Canaria offers group organisers a sea of possibilities for events, on an island of good weather. A destination that is close to Europe, with good connections, modern infrastructure and a varied and attractive landscape. One of the destinations with the longest traditions in Europe and ample organisational experience.

You will be accompanied by mild weather on the island, practically all year round, although the good weather is not the only thing that makes Gran Canaria a great destination. We have a wide selection of professional services, with many meeting rooms, hotels that are perfectly in-line with MICE customers and a broad range of conference centres.

Gran Canaria offers countless reasons for making your meeting a successful event.

Gran Canaria as a MICE destination

Why?

Weather: Gran Canaria has a very agreeable temperate climate all year round, with an average of 23°, making it possible to organise open-air events and combine work with leisure time in a natural setting.

Connectivity: Gran Canaria has excellent air connections, especially with most Spanish and European cities. Just two hours away from the mainland and four from almost anywhere in Europe, the international airport is just 20 minutes away from the Las Palmas and 15 minutes away from the south of the island.

Infrastructure: Gran Canaria has a broad and varied range of facilities for organising conferences and meetings large and small, receptions and banquets in charming, historical sites, exhibitions and product presentations in modern, well-equipped facilities.

Gran Canaria as a MICE destination

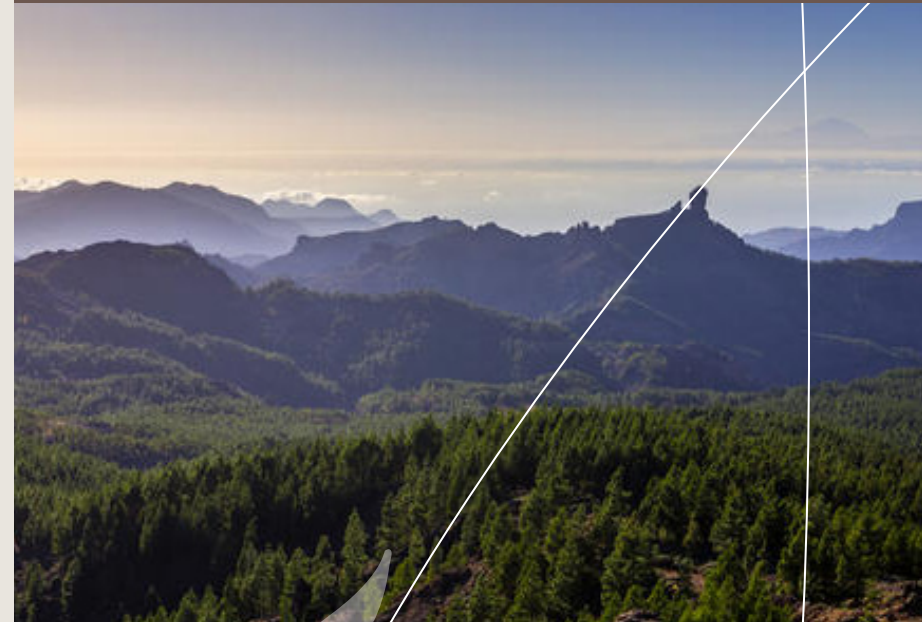

Why?

Hotels: The possibilities are many and varied.
With a large number of 4 and 5-star hotels.

An Environment of Contrasts: The leisure options that an island of contrasts offers are endless: from the Dunes of Maspalomas and the cliffs of the west coast, to the lush pine forests of the centre. Summer or winter, sports and the possibility of relaxing is one of the features of what the island has to offer.

Food: Rich and varied with local produce: fish, cheese, "gofio" flour, "mojo" sauces, tropical fruits... You can try a broad range of restaurants run by famous chefs who have developed a highly creative gourmet movement with style in spades.

Professional, quality service: A large number of specialists in business and sports tourism, backed by years of experience, with the best people in the industry to guarantee the success of your event.
