ManageEngine AppCreator

Fill IT process gaps with low code apps

ManageEngine AppCreator is an on-premises application builder. You can use it to extend the functionality of your ManageEngine applications seamlessly.

Get the most out of your ManageEngine solutions today. Automate processes faster, align your IT and business teams, and do much more with AppCreator's next-generation integration features. Interface with your ManageEngine solutions through powerful APIs.

Product highlights

- Drag-and-drop UI builder
- Automatic progressive web applications
- One-hundred percent on-premises
- SAML authentication
- One-click deployment to the web and mobile devices
- Blueprints: Easy business process automation
- Rebranding for your mobile applications
- Custom online portals

Integration with ManageEngine's stack

ManageEngine

- ServiceDesk Plus
- Site24x7
- ADManager Plus
- OpManager Plus
- Mobile Device Manager Plus

Any ManageEngine product with API integrations can be interfaced through AppCreator's powerful REST APIs.

AppCreator:
The definitive tool for empowering your IT teams

- Easily build approval workflows.
- Easily integrate with legacy architectures.
- Orchestrate data flows between multiple applications.
- Streamline your workflows by automating them.

From simple to complex, build powerful custom applications of any type and deploy them on-premises fast.