MALLORCA

Our surroundings

With its enviable location, Mallorca offers more than 200km of fine golden sand beaches and stunningly clear, shallow waters. Its cliffs and small, secluded coves are a delight to the senses all year round, thanks to the warm Mediterranean climate.

In addition to its rich cultural and leisure offer, the island has established itself as one of the most suitable destinations for any type of business event, congress or product launch.

Our commitment with

THE ENVIRONMENT

is more than just words

Every year since 2006, GPRO Valparaiso Palace Hotel & Spa has obtained the converted ISO 14001 certification of environmental quality management.

Furthermore, we have also received the distinction of “Eco-Resort” and “Umwelt Champion (Environmental Champion)” awarded by the tour operator TUI.

One of our fundamental principles is too efficiently and effectively management our environmental with these values.

What does GPRO Valparaiso Palace do to protect the environment?

1. We manage our pollution and waste

- We classify and separate the garbage for recycling
- We control our atmospheric emissions
- We monitor the noise we produce
- We delivered hazardous waste to authorized managers

2. We save water

- We install flow restrictors on faucets and shower
- We change the towels according to customer ecological criteria
- We watering during the peak insolation hours
- In our gardens, native plants dominate

3. We save energy

- We take advantage of natural light
- We use automatic sensor switches
- We use energy efficient light bulbs
- We control the temperature by thermostats
- We have 10 places to recharge electric vehicles

4. We think green when we purchasing

- We apply environmental criteria when buying
- We give priority to local products to reduce our carbon footprint
- We reduce the consumption of toxic products
- We use recycled paper or bleached without chlorine

5. We acquire environmental knowledge and attitudes

- We have an environmental training plan for our staff
- We are ready to respond to environmental emergencies
- The hotel has an environmental manager

6. We are committed to the environment

- We consider complaints and suggestions from our customers
- We obtain environmental certifications in our establishment
- We are members of the “Red de Hoteles Sostenibles Baleares” (Balearic Sustainable Hotel Network) <http://xarxahotelsostenibles.com/>
