CCI PARIS ILE-DE-FRANCE

Training your future talents

New jobs, new challenges... the Paris Île-de-France CCI schools are constantly innovating to provide a response tailored to the needs of businesses, the economy and the labour market.

We help young people and adults build their careers through initial training, apprenticeships and also in-house training. Whatever your challenges, our schools can help you boost your skills.

Every year, more than 38,000 students, including 17,000 in apprenticeships, and more than 30,000 adults receive training at the CCI's schools and almost all of our young graduates find their first job within just a few months.

Our schools are renowned in France and around the world for their high-quality instruction that is perfectly in line with today's business needs. But they are much more than teaching sites. They encourage young people to develop an entrepreneurial spirit, a culture focused on innovation, creativity, initiative-taking and openness to the world.

Our schools continue to reinvent a new way of preparing for the future by developing new teaching approaches centred around digital technology, by building new courses in close collaboration with businesses, and by taking an active part in setting up programmes geared towards facilitating entry into the professional world.

Acting for business

Our primary aim is to boost creative energy, innovation and all the projects that can generate economic growth and jobs for our region.

The Paris Île-de-France CCI provides its services to companies and its territory in some ten areas of strategic action.

We will assist you in your various legal procedures (business formalities, bringing your establishment into compliance, adapting to new regulations, etc.).

We are on hand to boost entrepreneurship by providing you with customized services to help you move forward with your business creation, takeover or transfer project. We can help you reveal the full potential of your activity by accompanying you in the search for financing, HR development, the digital transformation of your company or its orientation towards sustainable development. With CCI Business Grand Paris, we facilitate the emergence of new business between major clients and SMEs in the Paris Region. With Team France Export, we open up new international horizons for you.

Our advisers in all eight local CCIs in Île-de-France are at your side to support your business and commercial projects, your needs, and your goals.

CROCIS and OCED

Every year, Paris Ile-de-France CCI provides the authorities with immediately operational analyses of corporate life. Thanks to unrivalled cooperation between its elected members from all sectors of activity, and its legal experts, economists and town planners, etc. it can present studies and policy papers that reflect the realities for businesses on the ground.

All the questions faced by companies in their daily activities may be addressed, including economic, legal, taxation, financial, environmental and social issues.

Providing this information to regional and local authorities brings real added value to their preparations for the future. The analyses may also be presented to national, European and international authorities, in cooperation with other chambers of commerce and industry.

conferences & trade fairs: boosting your business

With over 700,000 sqm of covered exhibition space, the Paris area is one of the world's top destinations for exhibitions. Paris Île-de-France CCI is a key player in this strategic sector which contributes to the growth of business and business tourism across the region.

A strategic sector

Via its Viparis subsidiary, the Chamber provides you with 10 top-level exhibition and conference facilities hosting a total of more than 700 events and 11 million visitors each year. The Comexposium Group, another subsidiary of Paris Île-de-France CCI, is one of the world leaders in event organization and is involved in nearly 135 BtoC and BtoB events each year. This provides ideal conditions for you to publicise your products and meet new industrial or commercial partners in a very short time, discover the latest innovations in your sector of activity, and promote the expertise of the SMEs and the sectors of excellence of the Île-de-France economy internationally.
