

The collections of Lilliputiens, a Belgian designer of qualitative toys, offer opportunities for surprising adventures and endless fun. Lilliputiens designs toys that encourage development and amazement, full of smart activities and unexpected details. Made to enjoy, to learn, to understand, and to surprise, over and over again. Colours, sounds and textures stimulate the sense of newborns and babies. The irresistible, mischievous characters bring the designs to life, activating the imagination. The whimsical collections enhance the time that children spend with their parents. Because playing is infinitely more fun when it's surprising, vibrant and stimulating, for people of all ages.