

Dismantling barriers to participating in education, training and employment

Anna Rubin

Manager of the OECD Local Development Forum

Labour markets have largely recovered from COVID-19

but existing divides remain

Unemployment rates

Share of adults (16-65) in each group that participate in training, 2012/2015

Including across and within places

Who is responsible?

Slipping through the cracks?

Or getting caught up in the net?

Source: Gentofte Municipality and Bigger Picture; <https://academy.biggerpicture.dk/ukraine>

Eligibility for benefits and related services

Targeting and incentives

Transitions, e.g. between school & work

Re-thinking design of services.

Co-construction

Journey mapping

Targeting employers

Digital vs. in-person

New types of providers

Thinking in terms of place, not just people

Unpacking the geography of opportunity, including with new data

Community-wide strategies

Promoting local resilience, attractiveness and pride in place

