

Schedule: Going Beyond the City Limits

Day 3 Friday 17th June

13.45 Bus Dept for Clonakilty

14.45 Marketplace walking tour of Clonakilty

- Clonakilty Distillery - Clonakilty Distillery founders, the Scully family, have farmed the coastal land for eight successive generations. A commitment to both heritage and innovation has led them to revive ancient malting barley varieties. people or
- Clonakilty Black Pudding – The story begins in the 1800s in Philip Harrington’s butcher shop in Sovereign Street Clonakilty. Johanna O’Brien, a farmer’s wife, from Sam’s Cross wanted to subsidise the household income by making black pudding for Harrington’s butcher shop. In the 1980s, Edward and Colette Twomey wanted to share the taste of Clonakilty. As business continued to grow, a brand new custom-built production facility was opened in Clonakilty in October 2017. The new production facility also includes administration offices, new product development facilities and distribution.

3.45 Dept Clonakilty for Ardfield

16.00 Camus Farm Field Kitchen Drop off here 51°34'08.6"N 8°55'46.6"W

Winner of the coveted Georgina Campbell Award, best newcomer restaurant, the Field Kitchen is located on a 30-acre organic holding centered on 3 large stone-built barns dating from 1850 and supporting rare breed cattle, native tree/hedge species and traditional grassland meadows. Camus is in a rural West Cork setting, 6km from our nearest town, Clonakilty.

16.15 Thriving Communities, rural social inclusion – Panel Discussion

- Rural Social Inclusion - Christopher O’Sullivan TD
- Sustainable Development, Food Production and Agriculture the ecosystem of communities Vic Sprake
- Tourism, Culture and tradition – Heather McDougall West Cork Music Festival
- Education as a driver for growth - Cllr Patrick Gerard Murphy

17.30 Conference Close/Dept Cork.

