

Kuei!

Hello!...in Innu language.

Innu is an Algonquian language spoken by over 10,000 Indigenous people in Labrador and Quebec in Eastern Canada.

BLENDED & REMOTE WORKING

OECD Local Development Forum

June 15, 2022 – Cork, Ireland

Prepared by S. Péroquin (Canada)

Pierre Cl roux

Vice President
Research and Chief Economist

MAIN PERCEIVED BENEFITS OF TELEWORKING

Employees
(all company sizes)

Reduced commuting
time

84%

Flexible working hours

62%

MAIN PERCEIVED DISADVANTAGES OF TELEWORKING

Employees
(all company sizes)

Difficult to interact informally with colleagues

53%

Increased screen
fatigue

45%

MYTHS OR REALITIES?

Teleworking
brings people
to move

48%

of those who have moved since the crisis began

say the ability to telecommute was a factor in their decision

Teleworking
opens up the hiring
market

27%

of employers (SMEs) say that teleworking allows them to recruit outside their region

54%

of employees say that access to teleworking will be a determining factor in applying for or accepting a new job

nouveau chapitre
new chapter

Atlantic Canada

Sunset at Peggy Cove, Nova Scotia

Remote Workers Can 'Live For The Moment' In New Brunswick

Your New Team Meeting

Live for the Moment NB

ACTION CANADA FELLOWSHIP

IMMIGRATION in the era of REMOTE WORK

